The Purpose of Verses of the Bhagavad Gita

---

by Swami Shyam

The main purpose of the verses in the Bhagavad Gita is to strengthen the style of living of the one who reads them and imbibes their essential meaning. They are meant to be read and their meaning assimilated by all human beings who have the tradition of thinking, from time immemorial, that each person and each form is born; that forms will end in nothingness, so a human being will not have their joy; that because a person will also end or die, he will be eliminated completely as a body; and, that without his body, he cannot enjoy anything.

All people on earth are trying to live their life for the sake of experiencing joy, delight, or happiness. But even when they are alive and young and have everything around them, they do not succeed in deriving satisfaction by experiencing the joy contained in things or within their bodies. When they reach the end of their lives, they become very hopeless, because their senses, which had been enjoying things and the tastes contained in them, are so weak that they are unable to derive any joy from the tastes found in the objects and in themselves as bodies.

Therefore, every human being entertains the fear of the elimination of things, and even of his or her own elimination. Those who are conscious human beings entertain fear at every step and cannot live their human body life free from the idea that they should live forever and never die, because if they never die, many things will be available to them.

In these verses, the truth is spoken: please develop your ability and gain the knowledge that enables you to know that you are never born, thus, you will never die. You are eternal, pure, and forever. You are free from any adverse effect created by the power of things and human beings. You, as your true nature, are therefore the freedom that is never caught by any person, any thing, any relation, or any relative situation. Imbibe this fact and know it!

This is the meaning of these verses. Since human beings have no ability to know this, they have to read these verses again and again if they do not sing them. If they do sing, they have to sing them again and again until the truth of the real YOU, as the Self, is assimilated perfectly.

The one who does this will see that he is able to live his human life every day in freedom, without the effect of pain, suffering, and disease or the idea of destruction and death. He will always keep the thought and knowledge alive of this YOU, who is undying. Then, never will a thought come to him to kill or cut anybody, or that he will be cut or killed by any person, weapon, or situation. This knowledge will eliminate one's fear while living on Earth. And that will mean very nice living throughout!

Se credi che si può uccidere
o che sei ucciso
non conosci la verità
che non uccidi e non sei ucciso 2:19

L'Essere Divino non nasce mai
e non muore neppure
Sembra apparire
diventare una forma.
In verità non nasce mai
rimane sempre eterno
cambiando anche forma,
rimane immutabile 2:20

Se non si nasce, non si muore
chi uccide e chi è ucciso?
Fede nella vita e nella morte
è l'ignoranza, non piangere! 2:21

Come scartiamo vestiti usati
per addossare dei nuovi, Iddio lascia le forme stanche
per prenderne altre
Questa è la verità
dell'Essere Divino
Questa è la verità
dell'Essere Divino 2:22

Le armi non rovinano l'Essere eterno
Il fuoco non lo brucia, l'acqua non lo bagna,
Il vento non lo asciuga,
l'immortale indistruttibile.
Parole e significati
non affettano l'eterno
È proprio al di là, fuori da ogni influsso.
È proprio al di là, fuori da ogni influsso. 2:23

Dio è a prova d'arme
fuoco, acqua e aria.
Arjuno, devi comprenderlo
te lo faccio ricordare!
Che l'Essere è ovunque,
Immobile, costante.
L'Essere è ovunque,
Immobile, costante. 2:24

Non rattristarti mai pensando
forme si rovinano.
L'Essere è inscrutabile,
Amorfo, immutabile. 2:25

E Shyam dice.....
Che sia lieto, sia timido,
sia grande, sia piccolo,
nessuno vuole morire.
nessuno vuole morire.
Devi rompere la ruota
di vita e di morte,
meditando su questa verità,
meditando su questa verità,
che tu sei sempre amarum....
che tu sei sempre madhurum....
che tu sei sempre amarum....
che tu sei sempre madhurum....
